Senate Republicans Decide Not to Filibuster

ANXIOUS FOR EARLY ADJOURNMENT

Discussion of Trade Commission Is Resumed

Washington, July 29.—The Republican Senators in party conference yesterday voted not to filibuster or interpose dilatory tactics against the administration trust legislation program. They will not even insist upon a quorum being maintained at all times as they feel they would be justified in doing.

The Republicans will protest against the points in the trust bills that they consider bad. They will debate the subject but not at unnecessary length. The tone of the caucus was all in the line of an early adjournment, and many Senators present said that Congress ought to pass the trust legislation and adjourn by August 15 unless there is insistence on the passage of the rivers and harbors bill.

JAIL TERMS FOR TWO AGITATORS

Becky, Hunger Striker, Weakened, Is Carried Before Justice to Testify.

Tarrytown, N. Y., July 29.—Two months in the New York county penitentiary was the sentence imposed on Charles Robert Plunkett, L. W. W. leader and one of the nine prisoners arraigned before Justice of the Peace Moorhouse here yesterday.

Jacob Isaacson, another leader, was sentenced to two months also.

The sentence followed a hearing on charges of violating Section 43 of the penal code relating to the obstruction of traffic and endangering persons in public places, which grew out of the demonstration in the public square here on May 30 last.

Becky Edelstein, who has been on a hunger strike on Blackwells Island, was carried into court in a Morris chair to give her testimony. She having been brought here from the island prison in an automobile. She looked pale and weak, and was attended constantly in court by a nurse, who kept applying a wet handkerchief to Becky's forehead.

Friends of the I. W. W. speakers and spectators in the court expressed surprise at the outcome of Plunkett's hearing, and declared that there was no evidence to show that there had been any disorderly conduct until the police arrived at the scene of the speaking, pulled the speakers from their soap boxes and started clubbing them.

COMPENSATION LAW GOOD.

Insurance Companies Readily Accept New York's Plan.

New York, July 29.—The readiness of insurance company representatives to accept the new state compensation law without criticism and frequently aiding in favorable interpretation of it, and the unusual interest displayed by manufacturers and by sociologists of this and other cities, marked the open hearing yesterday of the new state workman's compensation commission. The ninety-three cases disposed of brought out rulings which will be used as the basis for future cases involving similar points. The ninety-three cases were settled by the commission making awards aggregating $930, weekly payments for accidents since July 1. Of the cases disposed of yesterday, ninety were claims for disability and three for deaths. The most important point with which the commission is wrestling is the definition of "hazardous employment" under the act. This arose in the case of a hotel porter, who, while cleaning windows, fell through a fire escape and was killed. Attorneys for the insurance carrier will have a special hearing to argue the question of the liability in the case.

Discrimination.

Two boys who managed to be rather unruly in school so exasperated their teacher that she requested them to remain after hours and write their names 500 times. They plunged into the task. Some 15 minutes later one of them grew uneasy and began watching his companion in disgrace. Suddenly the first one burst out with despair and between his sobs said to the teacher: "Tain't fair, mum! His name's Bush and mine's Schluttermeyer."

Bailey of Maine, the intercollegiate champion hammer-thrower of New England, is one of the new members. W. H. Allen of Hebron academy, the weight man who won the Harvard intercollegiate, is another member. Among the others are H. H. Seward and W. W. Shadden. The former won the 220-yard dash at the intercollegiate in May, while the latter is one of Yale's star hurdlers. They will be eligible for the New England A. U. championships next month and for the A. A. U. championships at Baltimore in September.

IN BOSTON MARKETS.

Fine Butter, with Fairly Large Supply—Eggs in Demand.

Boston, July 29.—Fine butter is pretty firmly held in the local market; demand has often before been more active and the supply is fairly large, but the strength of the outside markets points to higher replacing costs and the production is on the decline. Below the best goods the market is dull and no more than steady. The cheese market is steady, but it is because there is no pressure to sell that prices hold up, as supplies are large and the demand at best only moderately active. Strictly fresh eggs are in demand and firm in the lack of large supplies.

Jobbing quotations:
Butter—Fancy northern creamery, tubs 30½¢ to 31¢, boxes 31½¢ to 32¢, prints 32¢ to 32½¢, fancy western creamery 30¢ to 30½¢, good to choice creamery 26¢ to 28¢.

Beef cattle were a little easier, but with a moderate supply prices were not much changed. Heavy steers sold at 8½¢ for the best, with the range for tops at 8¢ to 8½¢. Good cattle brought 7½¢ to 8¢, and light cattle 7¢ to 7½¢.

For best beef cows 6½¢ was about the top, though some were held to a fraction higher. Range for tops was 6¢ to 6½¢, with good cows at 5¢ to 5½¢, ordinary cows at 4¢ to 4½¢ and canners at 3¢ to 3½¢.

Bulls were easier, sellers finding it difficult to get over 8¢. 60 to 80¢ being about the range for tops, with ordinary bulls at 5¢ to 5½¢, and bolognas at 4¢ to 4½¢.

Calves sold as high as 10¢ for fancy, though few brought this figure. Best lots sold at 9¢ to 10¢, with mixed lots at 8¢ to 9¢, and grassers at 5¢ to 7¢.

Wheat Jumps 9 Cents on News of War.

Chicago, July 29.—News of the mobilization of British battle squadrons came just before the gong cleared the pit on the board of trade here yesterday. The market closed wildly excited with September wheat at 92½¢, a jump of 9 cents a bushel compared with twenty-four hours before. The close was at the topmost point of the day.

The Montreal and Toronto stock exchanges were closed yesterday afternoon on account of the panic.

The foreign markets were again very weak yesterday over the Austrian-Serbian situation. London sent over a range of prices which were lower by as much as 3 points on some of our speculative leaders. New York opened off a point on the average for the important issues. From this level there was some recovery. The pressure on the market did not appear to be quite as severe as on Monday, and the support was better.

New Haven, Conn., July 29.—Taking the stand in her own defense yesterday Mrs. Bessie J. Wakefield on trial for the murder of her husband, William O. Wakefield, denied flatly that she had aided James Plew in murdering Wakefield or that she had any knowledge or belief that Plew intended to harm her husband. Plew has already been executed as the actual murderer of Wakefield. She described the fight between Plew and Wakefield at the Bristol home the night of the crime, and denying that she had any part in the killing said that when Plew asked Wakefield later in the evening to go out with him, she besought her husband not to do so but to remain at home with her. The return of Plew from Cheshire the day after the murder, and his statements to her were also related.
